

FAMILY & SUPPORT SERVICES MANAGER

CHISAGO COUNTY HEALTH & HUMAN IS SEARCHING FOR A FT FAMILY & SUPPORT SERVICES MANAGER to ensure that program planning, budget and personnel management, supervision, policy planning, regulation and implementation of a complex and comprehensive array of services and programs directed to the benefit of Chisago County citizens. The position also ensures that federal and state laws, along with county policy, governing these services are followed, so that the County protects and provides for the health, safety, and welfare of Chisago county's most vulnerable citizens, within considerations of the county's responsibilities. A master's degree from an accredited college in social work, behavioral sciences, human services administration, public administration or closely related field and one year of managerial or second level supervisory experience in a public or private social services/human service agency; or three years of supervisory experience as a social services supervisor or equivalent in a human service agency; OR a bachelor's degree from an accredited college/university and three years of managerial or second level supervisory experience in a public or private social services/human services agency; or five years of experience as a social services supervisor or equivalent in a human services agency. $65,998 to $89,315 DOQ. OPEN UNTIL FILLED.

Apply at: <http://agency.governmentjobs.com/mnmeritsystem/default.cfm>